Circular

All concerned HoDs, Principals, Teachers and Non-Teaching Employees of the University and Constituent Colleges are hereby informed that advances are released from time to time for meeting contingent expenditure and for organizing various programmes, seminars, workshops and other official/academic/Examination activities.

It has been observed that the advances so drawn are, in some cases, not being adjusted within the prescribed time and that the required vouchers and supporting documents are pending for submission.

Accordingly, all concerned are hereby directed to ensure that:

- Vouchers/bills and all supporting documents against advances drawn for any expenditure shall be submitted for adjustment within 15 (fifteen) days from the date of completion of the concerned expenditure/activity.
- In case of grants released by the University for any specific purpose, the Utilization Certificate along with relevant supporting documents shall be submitted within the prescribed period.

All HoDs/Principals are requested to ensure strict compliance with the above directions and to monitor the timely submission and adjustment of advances by the concerned personnel.

By order of the Vice Chancellor
